

Scott Foresman editors worked with the Smithsonian Institutions curatorial staff to create lessons that incorporate images culled from the Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History, National Air & Space Museum, National Museum of American History, National Postal Museum, National Portrait Gallery, and the Smithsonian American Art Museum. The materials cover a range of subjects including geography, culture, civics, government and economics. The goal of the program is to help illuminate both Americas past and its present for millions of social studies students in grades 1 through 5.
